

VACANCY Café Assistant

We're looking for a friendly enthusiastic and reliable individual to join our café team.

The successful applicant will welcome and manage customers in the café, providing high quality customer service as well as process payments and operating the till.

They will support the Café Manager with food preparation and stock control as well as maintaining food hygiene records and cleaning the café and kitchen areas as appropriate.

There will also be tasks associated with organising and providing buffets and refreshments for Rural Arts room hires.

The role is forward facing and primarily involves working in the café but will from time to time include dealing with general enquiries from visitors to the building.

Previous experience in hospitality or a retail environment is preferable but not essential as training will be provided.

Hours: 8 per week (10am – 2pm, Friday & Saturday), plus opportunity for holiday cover etc.

Salary: National Minimum/Living Wage (Age dependent)
