

Person Specification table

You may wish to complete the following tables and submit them as your application for the position of Senior Creative Producer (Performing Arts) at Rural Arts.

These should be sent to recruitment@ruralarts.org or Rural Arts, The Old Courthouse, 4 Westgate, Thirsk, YO7 1QS.

This first page will be detached from your application before it is reviewed.

Name
Pronoun/s
Address
Email
Phone number
Are you eligible to work in the UK?
Please share any access adjustments you would need at interview stage, and/or any unavailability for the proposed interview dates

The following are things we definitely want our new Senior Creative Producer to have.

We're looking for someone with...	Your experience in this area (It helps us if you share where and when you gained this experience)
Experience, interest in or understanding of programming live performance.
Experience, interest in or understanding of professional performance in nonprofessional settings.
Professional experience successfully managing large-scale live performance programmes or projects.
Professional experience successfully managing budgets and delivering to timelines.
Experience building relationships, collaborations, and partnerships.

Ability to attend site visits and deliver training sessions in venues across the county

The following are things we'd love our new Senior Creative Producer to have, but they're not essential.

We'd love you to have...	Your experience, if any, in this area (It helps us if you share where and when you gained this experience)
Experience programming live performance.
Experience, interest in or understanding of rural touring.
Experience supporting individuals or groups to develop their capacity, skills, and experiences.

Experience, interest in or understanding of Arts Council England aims, objectives, strategies and funding priorities.
Experience researching and writing fundraising applications or project proposals. Experience liaising with live performance artists/companies, including fee negotiations

Do you have any feedback on this recruitment process?

We're always trying to provide as positive an experience as possible to potential members of our team. Your feedback helps shape our future processes.

Equal Opportunities monitoring

We strongly encourage everyone who applies to complete our Equal Opportunities monitoring survey by clicking here.